LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

A son was born March 20 to Mr. and Mrs. John J. Long of Union street. The W. R. C. will serve a 10-cent supper in G. A. R. hall Saturday from 5 to 7.

Thomas Fitzgerald, formerly of this city, the bartender of James McKinley of Petersburg, indicted for violation of the liquor law, was admitted to bail by County Judge Nason yesterday afternoon. The bond was for $1000.

The board of health will begin its annual inspection of back yards and alleys next week and will order a prompt abatement of all the nuisances found. The time of year is at hand when the winter's accumulation of rubbish and filth should be disposed of and the board of health will insist on a thorough cleaning up in all parts of the city.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

A son was born March 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Canfield of Furnace street. William Thompson, who has for a number of years lived in Pittsfield, has moved to this city.

James Cullinan of Arlington, Vt., has taken a position as night telegraph operator at the railroad station. The Daughters of Scotia will hold their regular meeting in their hall on Bank street this evening. A full attendance is requested.

Sheriff Fuller was in the city again today, and was as always a very popular man, but has given out no hint of his probable appointment. The harbors and lands committee which will probably be here Monday was in Springfield yesterday investigating Connecticut river navigation.

Today is the Feast of the Annunciation and services were held at the Catholic churches at 9 o'clock. The children of the parochial schools attended. The bill to make the state militia perform seven days of camp duty each year has been favorably reported by the ways and means committee. The bill is strongly favored.

The funeral of Mrs. Melissa MacDonald was held at 2.30 o'clock today at the house, 105 Eagle street. Rev. James H. Spencer officiated and the burial was in Hillside cemetery. Already the roads are so far settled that bicyclists can ride from here to Williamstown with considerable ease.

The crowds at the Columbia continue to be large for the Kennedy Players. The play last night, "Behind Prison Bars," was well presented. Tonight will be "A Celebrated Case," the play made familiar by Blackinton amateurs. Tomorrow afternoon is "The Two Thieves," and tomorrow night, "Dark Side of London."

At Thursday evening's meeting of the "Four Threes" whist club with Mrs. W. B. Nickerson the prizes were awarded as follows: Mrs. W. L. Daniels, lady's first prize; Mrs. W. H. Schramm, second; Mrs. G. B. Chilson, booby; Albert Francher, gentlemen's first prize, F. E. Wiley, second; W. H. Schramm, booby.

Lewis Jeffries, a heel cutter in the Canedy-Clark shoe factory, is having a bad time with his right hand. About a week ago he blistered his hand and blood poisoning has set in. The hand is now in very bad condition. Dr. M. M. Brown is attending. Mr. Jeffries was out of work all winter. His wife is now sick and he feels that he is having a pretty hard time.

From present indications three special trains of Wagner Palace Sleeping Cars will be necessary to care for the Fitchburg R. R. Washington Tour of April list. The demand for accommodations is unprecedented, an indication that good things are appreciated. J. R. Watson, General Passenger Agent, or any agent of the Company will give full information.

Headache Quickly Cured. Dr. Davis' Anti-Headache never fails, 25c. Cascade Ladies Entertain. The entertainment given by the Cascade Ladies' Aid circle last evening in Odd Fellows' hall proved a pleasant success.

Another Real Estate Deal. Another important real estate deal has been completed by the Gallup agency, the Freeman property at the corner of Bank and Summer streets, has been sold to James A. Neil of Boston and a local man. The price was $26,000.

Another Klondiker Heard From. Edward E. Hawkes of A. W. Hunter's plumbing establishment has received a postal card from C. J. Lemire, who left this city February 23 for Klondike. Mr. Lemire is now at Edmonton, N. W. Territory, and will leave that place May 1 by McKenzie river steambot for Fort McPherson, taking an overland route from there to Klondike, where his brother has a claim. Mr. Lemire worked for A. W. Hunter when in this city and has many acquaintances and friends here who will be glad to know that he is well and as full of courage and confidence as when he left North Adams.

The Berkshire Cycle Co. announce elsewhere the preparations which they have made for the cycling season of 1898. Manager Hubbard has 75 new wheels already on exhibition, among them being the Wolf-American, Stearns, Keating, Cleveland, Iyer-Johnson, Crescent, Eagle, Crawford, Eclipse, Lyndhurst, Zimmy, Bostonian, Linwood, Reliance, Century.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Elizabeth W. Gould, of North Adams, Massachusetts, to the North Adams Savings Bank, a corporation duly established by law and located at North Adams, Berkshire County, Massachusetts, dated August twelfth 1901 A. D. 1898, and recorded in the Northern Berkshire Registry of Deeds, at Adams, in said county, in book 224, page 201, will be sold at public auction, upon the premises on Wednesday, the twentieth day of April, A. D. 1898, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely:— All that lot of land situate at the corner of North and Veazie street, in said North Adams, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:—

POWNAI.

The movement to institute a new creamery by the Syracuse manufacturers, was met by a counter influence in favor of the Bellows' Falls Separator organization and a lively time resulted. The outcome was to leave the starting of the creamery at the option of the farmers. The assignment of teachers as far as learned: In this village, the former teachers; Grady district, Miss Mary Parker; White Oaks, Miss Bertha Ladd, near district O. E. Barker; Niles district, former teachers; center, Miss Minnie Hunter.

James K. Batchelder has been in town and in connection with D. T. Bates surveyed the railroad crossing where the men were killed a year ago. The work is in the interest of the railroad for the April session of Windham county court. The farce comedy "Stub," or "The Fool From Boston," given in academy hall in North Pownal Thursday evening, March 17, under the management of J. J. Bechard for the benefit of the new Catholic church, was played to a crowded house and proved a success throughout. All the different parts were well rendered by the cast. Miss Emma Bechard as "Stub" was exceptionally fine and Eugene Potter rendered the part of "Logan Marsh" equally as well. "The Fool From Boston," J. J. Bechard, was all comedy. He rendered the many different parts that appeared opposite his name on the program in a way equal to none. Little Margie Bastian of Pittsfield proved a pleasant surprise in her singing and of a character that few older ones are able to surpass. Little Katie Morgan played a violin solo that was attractive. All those who saw the play were well pleased with it. All the parts in the play were rendered by parties from Pownal, and not only part of them as stated in the North Pownal item last Tuesday.

American's greatest medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which cures when all other preparations fail to do any good whatever. A MODERN WAY. Commends itself to the well-informed, to do pleasantly and effectually what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches, and fevers without unpleasant after effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy Syrup of figs. Manufactured by California Fig Syrup Co.

It's Near Enough to Spring. to be thinking of your spring clothes. If you had any left over from last year, now is the time to get them out, look them over to see what they need in the way of cleaning and repairing, and bring them in, so that they may be ready when you want them. We are experts in our line and can make old clothes that you have given up as hopeless look almost like new.
